

Sharing/editing your pictures in Flickr

You can add a tag and all you do is click on the box under add tags, and type.

If you want to add a friend click under add people and type in your friend's Flickr name.

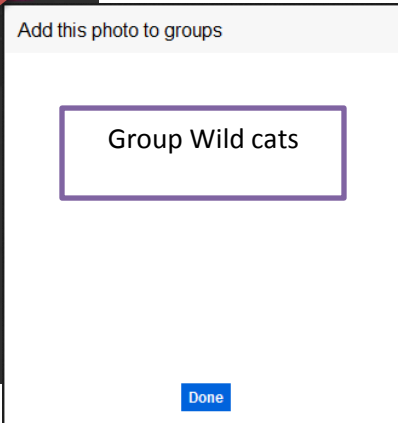

You can also add it to a set a box will pop up like this, you can just fill it in as you want.

If you want to add this picture to any groups you have to be a member of a group.

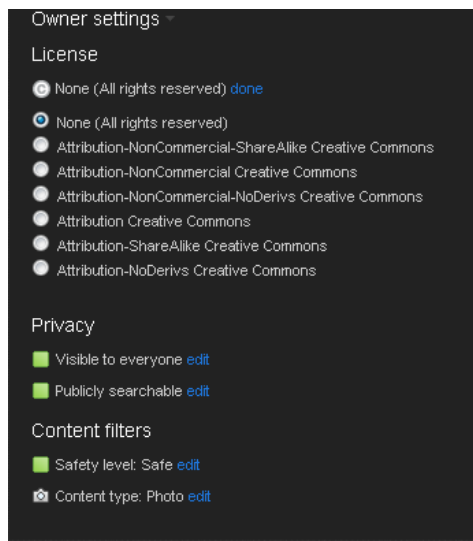

A box will pop up and if you are a member of a group just click on the name of the group and it will add the picture. The other people in the group will be able to see it.

The purple outline of a box will not pop up ignore that.

You can also click on owner's settings and pick what type of license you want. Click on the one that you want.

You can also edit your picture by rotating, changing the size, deleting, and adding pictures, and sorting them.

Then when your all done go to the top right hand corner of the page and click upload.
